Osaka 10 January, 2020 - Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director and CEO: Shinichi Inoue) launches additional sales of special fare plans for “Snap Tripper” during the fiscal 2019 Winter Schedule.

“Snap Tripper Special” are special fare plans offering discounted returns between Japan and overseas destinations on designated flights. These have proved especially popular with female passengers as a new style of travel to casually enjoy day-trips overseas since the introduction of these fares on the Kansai–Seoul route in July 2012.

It has recently been decided to add sales for two routes serving Taipei from Narita and Kansai airports. Sales were originally scheduled to be available until January 15th and 16th respectively, but have proved very popular, so flights from February 12th are additionally being sold. Return fares to Taipei from Narita are ¥9,000, and from Kansai are ¥8,000.

The “Snap Tripper Specials” now total five routes, including Haneda and Kansai to Seoul, as well as these two routes that also go on sale today. Please see the special website for details.
