

First for a Low-Cost Carrier! Starting Service from Fukuoka to Ishigaki

The only direct flight connecting Kyushu and Ishigaki

- One Round Trip Flight a Day
- New domestic flights from Fukuoka Airport for the first time in about four years
- Also, the number of flights will increase on a total of 4 routes to / from Nagoya (Chubu) and Fukuoka.

Osaka, Oct. 31, 2021 - Peach Aviation Limited (hereafter: Peach, Representative Director and CEO: Takeaki Mori) today becomes the first low-cost carrier with starting the service on the Fukuoka-Ishigaki route, the only direct flight connecting Kyushu and Ishigaki. The first flight from Fukuoka (flight no.: MM295) was almost full with 176 passengers.

MM295 (Aircraft No.: JA823P) departing from Fukuoka Airport.

With the launch of the Fukuoka-Ishigaki route, the number of domestic flights to/from Fukuoka has expanded to five routes, and the number of domestic flights to/from Ishigaki has expanded to four routes. This is the first new domestic flight from Fukuoka in about four years since the Sapporo (New Chitose) route, which went into service in Sept. 2017.

In addition, starting Oct. 31, we have increased the number of flights on four routes: Nagoya (Chubu) - Sapporo (New Chitose), Sendai, Okinawa (Naha) and Fukuoka-Okinawa (Naha) routes. This increase in flights has expanded customer travel options, making day trips possible on some routes. Please see the next page for details such as flight schedules.

Currently, domestic flight reservations are recovering, and the reservation rate in Oct. exceeded 60%, so a full-scale recovery in passenger demand is expected. We will operate a wide range of routes and schedules to more conveniently support our customers' air travel from the fall / winter season.

Peach will continue to take thorough countermeasures to stop the spread and build new travel styles with customers while contributing to the revitalization of local economies as a public transportation system connecting various regions of Japan.
